

WET SEASON WONDERLAND (WS1)

WET SEASON – SHORT AFTERNOON TOUR – JAN TO MAR
3 hours – 2:30pm – 5:30pm – approx. 110km
Minimum 2 – Maximum 6.

The Wet Season Wonderland tour gets you out and about for an exciting afternoon of chasing waterfalls, flooding rivers and a storm cloud sunset at key sites around Kununurra. We weave across town, through the agricultural areas, up some rocky ranges and lookouts and past some swelling waterholes and springs. In the space of the afternoon you'll spot some wildlife, hug a Boab, learn about the area and its history, and celebrate a Kimberley sunset with a cold drink and a few nibbles.

Highlights

- Upper Ord River and Diversion Dam viewpoints in flood
- Iconic Boabs with a storm cloud backdrop
- Waterfalls off the Cave Spring Ranges
- Lower Ord River and Ivanhoe Crossing views
- Birdlife in the Ord Irrigation Areas
- Kellys Knob town views and lightening shows
- Mirima National Park and boardwalk waterfall
- Secret lookout for sunset drinks and nibbles

* Note – tour itinerary will vary according to weather and road conditions

Itinerary

Pick-up from your accommodation or meeting point before tour commences at 2:30pm. We leave Kununurra via Swim Beach and Lake Kununurra before crossing the Diversion Dam to The Prison Boab Tree. You'll learn about the Ord River Diversion Dam and stop for some pics at the new viewing platform before heading down to the Bandicoot Bar for a closer view of the jetting water as it is released.

After crossing the Dunham River we'll check out any new waterfalls coming off the Bandicoot Ranges then head to Valentine Springs which flows into the Lower Ord River. As it is often impassable during the Wet Season, we may need to backtrack through to the Ord Agricultural Areas and learn about the various crops and produce. At Ivanhoe Crossing we'll stop to watch the pelicans outfishing the anglers before making our way across to the Cave Spring Ranges for some more waterfall chasing.

Time permitting we'll scoot up Kelly's Knob for some awesome views across town and then head east along 4WD tracks to a special sunset lookout. Here we'll set up with some drinks and nibbles to watch a sunset and hopefully, a spectacular light show as the storm clouds roll in over the red and green Kimberley landscape. We'll drop you off at your accommodation or meeting point around 5:30-6pm.
